

Aged to Perfection

A Celebration of Life & Wine

To benefit the Barrington
Area Council on Aging

Friday, September 17, 2010

This year's "Aged to Perfection" will feature an exciting array of live and silent auction items.

Live items include:

- An action-packed day of track racing—in your own car—at Blackhawk Farms Raceway in South Beloit on October 20
- A ladies-only murder mystery dinner in your home for 8-12 people
- Four tickets to see the Sox play Cleveland on October 3 (includes a parking pass)
- An in-home pastamaking lesson and dinner for eight
- A day of fishing and lunch at the Max McGraw Wildlife Foundation
- Four tickets to see the Bears play the Vikings on November 14

Silent items include:

- A catered dinner eight—with music
- Great parties for kids, including a pizza lunch with Barrington firefighters and a party with rescued horses at the HARPS farm in Barrington Hills
- Cubs and Bears tickets
- Four tickets to Fork, Cork & Style, Saturday, October 2 at Arlington Park
- Food, wine and dining baskets

Make your own bid—or get together with some friends! Remember: all auction proceeds help support BACOA's programs and services for seniors, family caregivers and the community.
